

Teva Neuroscience, Inc. Privacy Policy

Introduction

Your privacy is important to Us. To better protect that privacy, Teva Neuroscience, Inc. ("Teva") is providing this notice to explain our online information practices and the choices You can make about the way Your information is collected and used. This Privacy Policy applies only to the use and collection of data collected by these web sites located at www.copaxone.com, www.mswatch.com, www.msuniversity.com and www.sharedsolutions.com (the "Web Sites") and does not apply to any other data collected by Teva online or offline.

As used in this Privacy Policy, "We" includes Teva, and its related companies, as well as any third-party vendors We hire to assist in the administration of the Web Sites. These vendors are required to maintain the confidentiality of the user information to which they become privy in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy and to otherwise abide by the terms of this Privacy Policy. These vendors are prohibited from using the user information for any other purpose.

Collection and Use of Your Information

You can visit our Web Sites and find out about Teva's products and services without giving Us any personally-identifying information about You. When You visit our Web Sites, We do not collect any personally identifiable information without Your consent. We collect and store information from You that You voluntarily choose to give Us or enter on our Web Sites, including but not limited to "personally identifiable information" such as Your name, address, e-mail address, etc. Our primary purpose in collecting and processing such information is to provide You with services that You request or to personalize product information for You. We may also use Your personally identifiable information to provide You with additional information about our products and services. We may also share Your personally identifiable information with other Teva North America business units or affiliates, our agents, contractors, or business partners located in North America, in order that they may perform services for Us.

While the information You provide will be maintained for a commercially-reasonable time by Teva for administrative, liability, and archival purposes, Your personally-identifying information is not shared with a third-party, other than (i) as required by law, (ii) to protect and defend the rights of Teva, the Web Sites or the users of the Web Sites, (iii) as incident to a corporate sale, merger, reorganization, dissolution, bankruptcy or similar event, (iv) under circumstances We believe reasonably necessary to protect the personal safety of users of Teva products and services, the Web Sites or the public, or (v) as is otherwise described in this Privacy Policy.

We do conduct research on user's demographics, interests and behaviors based upon information provided to Us during use of our Web Site(s) and We may combine Your information with information collected from other individuals to produce anonymous, aggregated statistical information. Aggregated data does not include personally identifiable information. We use this demographic information, such as the percentage of male or female visitors, or the percentage of visitors within certain age brackets, to improve the content of our site. We also may share this anonymous, aggregated information, which does not identify personal identifiable information, with third parties.

Security and Use of Information

To prevent unauthorized access to the Web Sites or any portion thereof, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, We have enacted commercially-reasonable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure, during transmission and storage, the information We collect online.

Special Note Regarding Web Site Use By Children

The Web Sites are neither directed to nor designed for use by children - i.e., anyone under eighteen years old.

Links to Other Sites

As a resource to our visitors, Teva provides links to other web sites. Please be aware that these other web sites are not covered under Teva's Privacy Policy. We suggest that when linking to another site, You always read that web site's privacy policy before volunteering any personally identifiable information.

Cookies and IP Addresses

Cookies are text files that are stored on a web site user's computer by the web site. Cookies typically contain user-related information such as preferences, status, settings, etc. The purpose of most cookies is to make use of the Internet easier and quicker. Most browsers allow the user to choose settings that allow the use of cookies, that provide notice to the user when cookies are being stored, and/or that refuse all cookies.

An IP Address is a unique identifying number that is automatically assigned to any computer connected to the Internet. Depending on the nature of Your Internet connection, the IP Address may change each time You connect or may always be the same number for that computer. We reserve the right to log IP Addresses for system administration, security, statistical analysis, demographic analysis of Web Site use, and other such functions.

Public Forums

To the extent that the Web Sites make forums, message boards and/or news groups available to You, please remember that any information that is disclosed in these areas becomes public information. You should exercise caution in disclosing personally identifying information there or in any other public section of the Internet.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Teva may, from time to time in its sole discretion, change or modify this Privacy Policy. Any changes or modification will be effective upon posting of the revisions on the Web Sites. At any given time, Your access and use of the Web Sites and provision of information is governed by the Privacy Policy then in effect. Teva may post changes or modifications to referenced policies and guidelines without Your approval, and may determine whether and when any such changes apply to You. Your continued use of the Web Sites following Teva's posting of any changes or modifications will constitute Your acceptance of such changes or modifications. Should You not wish to be bound by the modified Privacy Policy, You may not use or access the Web Sites.

Communications To Us

Comments, suggestions, or other communications sent by You to Us are deemed to be non-confidential. We have no obligations of any kind in relation to such comments, suggestions, or communications and are free to use or distribute them in any way, including in relation to the administration, update, or improvement of the Web Sites, without compensation to the author, sender, or any other party.

By using the Web Sites, You signify Your assent to this Privacy Policy. Should You have any privacy-related questions or concerns, You may contact Us at tevaneuro@tevaneuro.com.
